FIS SKI JUMPING WORLD CUP ZAKOPANE 2018

TEAM COMPETITION

Team competition in Zakopane amazed for sure even the most exacting ski jumping supporters in the world. Polish athletes – Maciej Kot, Stefan Hula, Dawid Kubacki and Kamil Stoch – was unbeatable and won the event in an amazing style. For Stefan Horngacher’s team it was an extraordinary evening, because they won the competition in Zakopane for the first time in history. Kamil Stoch established a new hill record. With a jump of 141.5 meters long he beaten Simon Ammann’s record from 2010.

INDIVIDUAL COMPETITION

After the amazing performance of the Polish team in the team competition fans was waiting for the same good results to be made in the individual event. But at Sunday the most important role was played by the wind. Eventually the individual competition won Anze Semenic. It was the first World Cup win for this young Slovenian ski jumper. Second place went to Andreas Wellinger and another Slovenian athlete Peter Prevc stood at the third step of the podium. The best of Polish ski jumpers was Stefan Hula (4th place).
